Hanover, July 11, N. S.

ON Friday laſt Brigadier Dubourgay arrived here from Berlin, and was introduced the next Morning to His Majeſty. On Saturday in the Afternoon His Majeſty came from Herrenhauſen to his Apartments in this Town, and after having viewed the Grand Theatre of the Opera Houſe, returned to Herrenhauſen, where in the Evening one of the Princes of Bevern arrived from Brunſwick, and was received very graciouſly by His Majeſty. This Prince is lodged at Court, and ſerved by His Majeſty's Officers. The ſame Evening the Counteſs Dowager of Buckebourg returned to Haagenbourg, the Place of her Reſidence. Count Reinſtein, the King of Sweden's Envoy at Hambourg, being come hither with a Letter from the King his Maſter, was introduced Yeſterday Morning to His Majeſty; as were alſo two Deputies whom the City of Hambourg has ſent to congratulate his Majeſty upon his Arrival here. The young Prince of Holſtein, who is Biſhop of Lubeck and Eutin, arrived here the Night before laſt, and was introduced Yeſterday to the King, who received him in a very gracious Manner. He is lodged in one of the King's Houſes in Town, and attended by His Majeſty's Officers. To Night Prince William and Prince George of Heſſe Caſſel are expected here. A great many Foreigners arrive here daily, to ſee the great Review which His Majeſty intends to take on the 15th.

Hanover, July 12, N. S. There was a Ball laſt Night at Herrenhauſen, and the Court was very numerous and ſplendid on that Occaſion: While it laſted Prince William and Prince George of Heſſe arrived from Caſſel; they were very graciouſly received by the King, and had the Honour of ſupping with his Majeſty. The Prince of Bevern having taken laſt Night his Leave of the King, ſet out to return home. This Evening the King is expected in Town, where the Grand Theatre of the Opera-Houſe is to be illuminated, and there will be a Conſort of Muſick.
